King of Prussia, PA (February 17, 2016) – The popular dineKOP restaurant week returns March 7-13, 2016, after a successful 2015 debut. dineKOP is the King of Prussia District's (KOP-BID) unique interpretation of a restaurant week offering diners affordable, prix-fixe lunch and dinner menus.

dineKOP provides diners the opportunity to experience the best culinary offerings in the area with special menus at incredible prices! Lunch menus are priced at: $10, $15 or $20. Dinner menus are priced at: $20, $30 or $40.

A portion of the proceeds from participating dineKOP restaurants will be donated to The Children's Hospital of Philadelphia's (CHOP) King of Prussia Specialty Care & Surgery Center. In 2015, KOP-BID was able to donate $11,500 to CHOP's King of Prussia center, on behalf of the dineKOP restaurants.

In addition, participating dineKOP restaurants will welcome CHOP Ambassador families to dine with them and enjoy a special restaurant experience during dineKOP.

“dineKOP restaurant week is a unique way to experience the many wonderful flavors of local dining establishments,” said Dann Braid, The Children’s Hospital of Philadelphia Regional Director, Specialty Care Services. “As the beneficiary of this annual event, we and our Ambassador Families are truly grateful to the King of Prussia District and the participating restaurants and diners who help raise important funds for essential enhancements to our patient facility.”
