It's no secret that the restaurant scene has been expanding at a rapid pace in King of Prussia over the past year. With so many new options in the area to complement existing well-loved favorites, there is no better time to go out and taste your way through King of Prussia.

You don't have to break the bank to savor all that the King of Prussia dining scene has to offer. The popular dineKOP restaurant week returns March 6–12 for its biggest and best year to date. Organized by the King of Prussia District's \(KOP-BID\), dineKOP offers diners affordable, prix fixe lunch and dinner menus.

During dineKOP, diners can experience the best culinary offerings in the area with special menus at incredible prices. Lunch menus are priced at $10, $15 or $20. Dinner menus are priced at $20, $30 or $40.

A portion of the proceeds from participating dineKOP restaurants will be donated to Children's Hospital of Philadelphia's \(CHOP\) King of Prussia Specialty Care & Surgery Center. Since 2015, dineKOP has raised $23,500 for the Center. In addition, participating dineKOP restaurants will welcome CHOP Ambassador families to dine with them and enjoy a special restaurant experience during dineKOP.

"The Children's Hospital of Philadelphia's King of Prussia Specialty Care Center team is very grateful for the contributions from our community," said Claire Bowers, Children's Hospital of Philadelphia King of Prussia Specialty Care Site Manager. "As beneficiaries from dineKOP Restaurant Week, we are able to expand beyond the walls of the hospital into our surrounding communities, allowing us to provide excellent care to our patients and their families closer to home. We appreciate all the support from our neighbors in the King of Prussia District."
